The Annual Whyte Avenue Art Walk Weekend is Here

Although things are different this year, you can still enjoy a visit to the Whyte Avenue Art Walk in our indoor market location! The July 9 to 11 weekend is our usual weekend for this amazing annual event. We will return to the outdoors in 2022 for our 27th year, taking over the Avenue with artists showcasing their work spanning 8 blocks. In the meantime, we have a full house of 55 artists for you to enjoy this weekend at the former Army and Navy building. A roster of this week's artists and a gallery of their work can be found at art-walk.ca. The Whyte Avenue Art Walk continues every weekend - Friday through Sunday - until August 1, 2021.

Come watch the artists in action and discover something new in our safe and relaxed environment. Tickets are $5 for a daily entry and can be booked in advance at art-walk.ca or purchased at the door. Children 12 and under are free. Masks are still required.

The Whyte Avenue Art Walk is the perfect in-person, interactive weekend excursion in District Whyte – Old Strathcona. Make a day of it and enjoy some special offers from Old Strathcona businesses for Art Walk patrons. A list of promotions can be found at art-walk.ca/old-strathcona-business-promotions.

Come enjoy this signature Edmonton event this weekend as you do every year, and together we can continue to connect art enthusiasts with Edmonton artists through the Whyte Avenue Art Walk.

About the Whyte Avenue Art Walk

The Whyte Avenue Art Walk is a non-juried event that attracts professional artists, amateurs, and students. People are invited to buy art directly from the artists. All artists, brave enough to share their work, are welcome to participate. Artists are encouraged to bring their supplies and creativity and make art right on site, providing an exciting opportunity for visitors to engage in many creative processes.
