

We're back!
JULY 8-10, 2022

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 8, 2022

SAVE THE DATE - The Whyte Avenue Art Walk returns in all its full glory in one month

Imagine an outdoor celebration of art, a festival where you can meet the artists as they create. You'd be describing Whyte Avenue Art Walk, and after two long years we're back on the avenue from July 8-10, 2022. We couldn't be more excited!

This year there will be more than 280 artists stretched along six blocks of Whyte Ave., from 107 St. through to 101 St., with tents in the north and south street closures at 105 St., in and around Dr. Wilbert McIntyre Park including the Strathcona Back Street, as well as the 104 Street bus lane from the library to 81st Avenue. That's a lot to see. If we can be honest, we'd have to say it's a spectacle not to be missed, a vibrant, fantastical explosion of art, creativity, and community.

Whatever your tastes or budget, the Whyte Avenue Art Walk artists offer something for everyone. You'll see emerging artists, established artists, and a broad variety of styles. Patrons especially enjoy being able to connect with the artists, ask questions about their process or palette, and watch the process unfold.

The Whyte Avenue Art Walk is a family-friendly, accessible event. It's a great opportunity to revisit some of your favourite businesses, restaurants, patios, and explore some new ones.

The first Whyte Avenue Art Walk blossomed in 1995 with a handful of artists and has since grown to an event that draws as many as 40,000 visitors over the course of its three-day run. As with other years, the festival opens to the public from 10 am to 5 pm each day.

See you on the Ave.!
